

» Outline of Major Activities

North & South Americas

In New York City, the New York Times Tower, which is the new home of the country's leading newspaper publisher, has been completed. The 350-meter high, 52-story tower has a total of 32 Fujitec elevators installed, including super-high-speed models that run at 480 meters per minute.

In Los Angeles, the LAC+USC Medical Center is a medical institution created through the merger of a county hospital and the University of Southern California's hospital. It uses 29 Fujitec elevators.

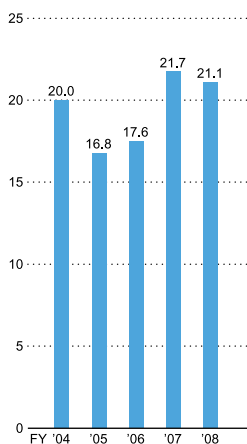

In Canada, the Shangri-La Hotel is a world-class hotel/luxury condominium in Vancouver currently under construction. Thirteen Fujitec elevators will go into service, including super-high-speed models, in this 60-story building.

In the province of Ontario, Canada's largest general hospital, the William Osler Health Center was built and uses 32 Fujitec elevators.

New York Times Tower

Sales in the Americas (Billion ¥)

LAC+USC Medical Center

Japan

This April a new building complex called Akiba Tolim opened in Tokyo, connected directly to Akihabara Station on the Tsukuba Express rail line. The complex is comprised of hotel and commercial facilities, and has a total of 16 Fujitec elevators and escalators in operation.

Also in Tokyo, we received an order for eight elevators for a new building at the Tokyo Women's Medical University Hospital, including observation models. The Consultation Center at the same university has ordered a total of 19 Fujitec elevators and escalators.

In Osaka, construction is in progress on one of Japan's largest department stores, the rebuilding of the Hankyu Department Store (Umeda main store) for which we have received orders for 10 elevators, including observation models. We have taken an order for 11 elevators for Urban Chayamachi, a building complex with hotel and commercial facilities designed by the world-famous architect Tadao Ando.

In Kobe, The Art Center of Kobe, a high-rise residential building complex, has been completed in front of Shin-Kobe Station. The building stands 37 stories high and uses eight of our elevators.

In downtown Kyoto at Shijo Kawaramachi, Kotocross Hankyu Kawaramachi is a large commercial facility that has opened, utilizing 12 Fujitec elevators and escalators. We also supplied 45 elevators and escalators to the largest shopping center in the city of Hiroshima, You-me Town Hiroshima.

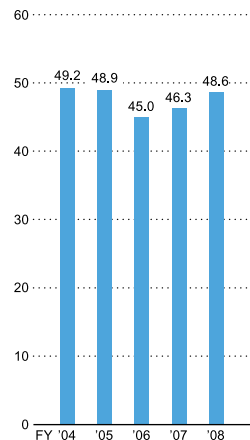

Artist's rendering of the Hankyu Department Store (Umeda main store) upon completion

Art Center of Kobe

Sales in Japan
(Billion ¥)

» Outline of Major Activities

East Asia

In Hong Kong, HarbourView Place is a 72-story high-rise building standing directly above Kowloon Station. It uses 32 Fujitec elevators and escalators, including super-high-speed models. In the Kwun Tong district, the 32-story Millennium City 6 is a state-of-the-art building that uses 20 of our elevators and escalators.

China has submitted high-volume orders - 104 escalators for the Beijing Subway No. 4 Line; 28 elevators for The Peninsula Shanghai, a leading five-star hotel; 118 elevators for a large-scale residential development in Nanjing, phase one of the North coast of Haide Project; and 100 elevators for Tung yan cai-hong cheng in the city of Zunyi.

In Taiwan, the World Games will be held in Gaoxiong in 2009, and Fujitec supplied 10 elevators for the main stadium.

In South Korea, 386 elevators have been ordered for a large-scale residential project being built by the Korea National Housing Corporation, boosting the total order from the government corporation to 833 units.

Sales in East Asia
(Billion ¥)

Millennium City 6

South Asia

In Singapore, the globally renowned world-class hotel, St. Regis is now opened and Fujitec supplied 27 elevators for the hotel and adjacent luxury residential building.

Also in Singapore, Resorts World is being built on Sentosa Island, which includes a Universal Studios and six hotels, for which 153 elevators and escalators have been ordered.

In Malaysia, the Aeon Bukit Tinggi Shopping Centre, one of the largest commercial complexes of its kind in Southeast Asia, has opened and it utilizes 79 Fujitec elevators, escalators, and autowalks (moving walkways).

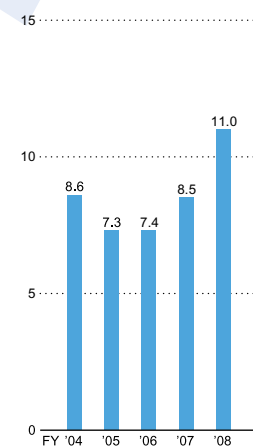

In Indonesia, the 45-story luxury condominium The Capital Residence was completed in Jakarta, for which Fujitec supplied 24 elevators.

In India, we installed eight beautiful elevators in the world-famous Four Seasons Hotel Mumbai.

St. Regis

Sales in South Asia
(Billion ¥)

Europe & the Middle East

In England, a new station was completed along the Channel Tunnel Railway that links London with Paris, a project utilizing a total of 28 Fujitec elevators, including observation models.

In the United Arab Emirates, Fujitec received a high-volume order of 98 autowalks for the Dubai Metro urban railway project and are supplying 32 elevators and escalators for the monorail stations being built on the world's largest artificial island, Palm Jumeirah.

Also in Dubai, Four Points by Sheraton Dubai and Emirates Crown Tower were completed, using a large number of Fujitec elevators.

Four Points by Sheraton Dubai

Sales in Europe
(Billion ¥)

